CREATOR

BIOGRAPHY

Kevin Michael Chong is an Orange County-based drummer, percussionist, and creator with more than 25 years of live and studio experience. His work spans church stages, national tours, festivals, recording projects, and major broadcasts, grounded in deep pocket, stylistic versatility, and an artist-first approach across Pop, Gospel, CCM, Latin, Country, Rock, and Indie music. In 2026, Kevin performed as a plenero alongside Bad Bunny during the Super Bowl LX Halftime Show at Levi's Stadium. His career also includes touring as drummer for Ana Bárbara, seasonal performances at Disney California Adventure, and recording on three albums with Influence Music. Whether supporting an artist live or shaping a performance in the studio, he brings preparation, musical sensitivity, and a strong sense of story.
